Performance Expectations

Government has provided the following direction to the Yukon Housing Corporation:

- To deliver housing programs and initiatives related to the provision of housing in the Yukon as set out in the Housing Corporation Act, the Housing Development Act and the Government Employee Housing Plan Act.

As an agent of Government, the Corporation is subject to other applicable Yukon laws, including, but not limited to, the Corporate Governance Act, the Financial Administration Act, the Public Service Act and the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

The Mandate identified in the Strategic Plan 2018/19 to 2022/23 is:

- To deliver housing programs and initiatives that address the housing needs of Yukon residents in accordance with government legislation, and in alignment with the objectives and priorities established by the government.

To achieve its mandate, and in response to Government's general direction, policies and fiscal plan, the Corporation will partner and engage with Yukon residents as it delivers on the Corporation's priorities and the Government's statement of enduring priorities:

- Our people-centred approach to wellness helps Yukoners thrive.
- Our strategic investments build healthy, vibrant, sustainable communities.

- Our strong government-to-government relationships with First Nations foster reconciliation.
- Our diverse, growing economy provides good jobs for Yukoners in an environmentally responsible way.

In guiding the achievement of the Annual Operating Plan and meeting the objectives of the Strategic Plan, the Corporation will pay particular attention to building on the following Government priorities, as assigned by the Minister to the Corporation, specific to the mandate:

- Aligning policy and programming with the commitments to:
  - Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action through the implementation of Changing the Story to Upholding Dignity and Justice: Yukon's Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls and Two-spirit+ People Strategy;
  - Our Clean Future Strategy;
  - Putting People First report; and
  - Adhering to the Confidence and Supply Agreement.
- Increasing housing stock across the territory, developing new land parcels and lots, and enabling innovative approaches to address the acute need for increasing housing options in the territory. This will be led by Yukon Housing Corporation with support from the departments of Community Services and Energy, Mines and Resources. This includes:
  - Releasing the 5th and Rogers land parcel to the private sector for future housing development.
  - Supporting the establishment of community land trusts in the Yukon.
- Developing new, and continuing existing, incentives for construction of affordable housing.
- Building and operating the next Housing First project in Watson Lake. This will be lead by Yukon Housing Corporation with support from the Department of Health and Social Services.
- In Partnership with First Nation governments and development Corporations, developing and maintaining Yukon government staff housing in rural communities.

- Continuing to implement the Aging in Place Action Plan, to ensure that Yukoners can access supports in their communities, and enable seniors and elders to live safe, independent and comfortable lives for as long as possible.

As well, for the 2022-23 year the Board will work to:

- Develop their Board's next five-year Strategic Plan for 2023/24-2027/28 that will help guide the Corporation's path for the next five years.
- Support the work and report out on the Implementation Plan for the 2022 - Office of the Auditor General's (OAG) Performance Audit on Yukon Housing.

- Establish and monitor policies to effectively manage the Corporation's liabilities, protect its assets and make effective use of the resources provided to achieve its mandate.
- Maintain bylaws, policies and procedures that support the effective operation of the Board and annually evaluate its performance in meeting its governance responsibilities.
- Report to the Minister through its annual report and other appropriate mechanisms on the Corporation's financial performance and its achievements in meeting the Government's priorities specific to its mandate.

Chair

The Chair is responsible for providing leadership for the Board. With direction from the Board, the Chair represents the Board and its interests, as well as the interests of the Corporation, in dealing with the Minister, the President, clients and the community.

The Chair will:

- Plan, lead and manage Board meetings and other Board work.
- Communicate on behalf of the Board to the Minister to review and discuss the implementation and progress of the performance expectations as set out in this Agreement.
- Work with the President to ensure the Board has the information and advice it needs to make informed decisions and to provide quality advice to the Minister.
- Ensure Board members have training and other opportunities to effectively carry out their responsibilities.
- Foster a positive working relationship among Board members and between the Board and the President.
- Maintain an effective working relationship with the President to keep the Minister apprised of the Corporation's activities and any new initiatives or emerging issues that could substantially impact Government interests.
- On behalf of the Board, evaluate the President's performance based on quantitative and qualitative measures and provide recommendations to the Premier and Minister as part of the annual performance review process.

President

The President of the Yukon Housing Corporation is responsible for managing the Corporation's daily operations under the Board's stewardship and strategic direction and in keeping with Government's direction to the Board and its performance expectations in the context of an outcomes-based evaluation framework.

The President is accountable to the Board and to the Minister and Government for the operations of the Yukon Housing Corporation.

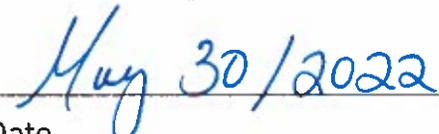

To meet these responsibilities, the President will:

- Provide leadership, management and control of the Corporation's day-to-day operations within the applicable legal, regulatory and policy frameworks and in keeping with the direction from the Board, the Minister and Government.
- Support the Board in discharging its responsibilities, meeting the Corporation's fiscal goals, meeting the commitments in its Annual Operating Plan and achieving performance expectations as set out in this Agreement and the 5-year Strategic Plan "Bringing the Future into Focus". Alongside for 2022-23 ensure the proper resources are in place to support the Board to develop their next 5-year strategic plan.
- Working with the Chair, advise the Minister of the Corporation's activities, plans and communications with partners and the public.
- Maintain effective communication with the Board and its Chair, with departmental, business, community and intergovernmental partners and clients.
